GPS: 32°41'04"S 18°32'10"E

DanielsHoogte is a working farm rich in Fynbos, situated at the top of Aurora Mountain, approximately 800m above sea level. This hidden gem boasts spectacular views of St. Helena Bay on the beautiful West Coast, as well as farmlands of Piketberg to the East. On a clear day, Table Mountain is visible in the far distance.

DanielsHoogte is approximately 1.5 hours' drive (180km) from Cape Town International Airport and 40km from Velddrif at the Atlantic Ocean, offering you a relaxed country getaway, distant enough from the hustle and bustle of city life.

One is able to camp or stay in the self-catering mountain cottages situated in various locations on the farm.

This private reserve boasts much fauna and flora to be appreciated by any lover of the outdoors. The fauna that has been sighted thus far is the Black Eagle, Klipspringer, Duiker, Fallow Deer, Lynx, Aardwolf, Dassie, Porcupine, Baboon, the rare Cape Eagle Owl and Leopard. It is a bird watcher's haven, with 85 different bird species having been sighted. It is an absolute delight for the wildlife photographer.

The Protea Atlas Project has identified several endangered and endemic Protea species on the Reserve.

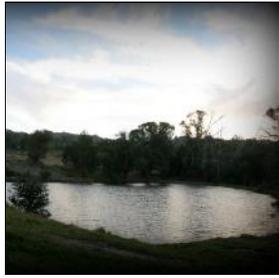

Hikers and cyclists are able to explore and enjoy the natural surrounds with many rocky outcrops and Bushman paintings to view. You can cool off in one of the dams on a hot summer day.
